Ms. Veazey is a certified mediator for Mississippi Mediation & Arbitration. She is one of six attorneys selected in the state to serve as an Appeals Judge for the Gulf Coast Claims Facility. Over the past seventeen years, she has served as a mediator for thousands of disputes in such areas as personal injury, domestic relations, medical and legal malpractice, workers' compensation, commercial law, premises liability, and product liability.

Ms. Veazey holds a B.A. from UCLA (1973) and J.D. Summa Cum Laude (1978) from Mississippi College School of Law, where she served as editor-in-chief of the Law Review. After practicing with Watkins, Ludlam, Winter, and Stennis, Ms. Veazey was a financial advisor and stock broker. Her business experience includes owning a retail business. She has served as an adjunct professor at Millsaps College and Belhaven College.

She is a member and vice-chair of the Executive Committee of the Mississippi State Bar ADR Section. She has served on the Court-annexed Mediation Committee. She presents programs regularly for business and professional organizations and has lectured at various CLE seminars on Alternative Dispute Resolution. Most recently, she served on the faculty of the Advanced Mediation and Advocacy Skills Institute presented by the ABA Section of Dispute Resolution in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. She assists in teaching and evaluates and judges students' performances in ADR classes and competitions at Mississippi College School of Law.
